

SDT Supports 2007 Georgia Black United Fund

October 9, 2007 – SDT was a proud sponsor of the 2007 Georgia Black United Fund Golf Tournament held on September 19th in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

The Georgia Black United Fund is a non-profit that supports 48 other non profits in the state of Georgia. The GBUF is a community fund that provides financial and technical resources to support organizations dedicated to enhancing the lives of underserved community members throughout the state. Georgia Black United Fund is committed to improving the quality of life for all individuals, by addressing education, health, cultural, legal, economic, spiritual, and self-development issues.

The primary objective of the GBUF is fundraising through payroll deduction systems, direct contributions, special events, board member assessments and corporate grants. GBUF was organized in October 1975 and is one of twenty-two affiliates of the National Black United Fund, Inc.

SDT's President, James Ezell attended this event held at the Stonemont Golf Course at Stone Mountain State Park. Among those in attendance were AT&T's Ken Ingram and wife Cassandra; SDT - Autry Pugh, former SDT President; Kirk Smith, Principle; Bruce Day, VP-Operations; and Julius Head, Director-Business Development. Julius is also the Board Chair of the Georgia Black United Fund.

